

BC ITVERSITY NPC

Faculty of Information Technology
Senior Lecturer: Business Information
Technology

Job Profiles

Senior Lecturer: Business Information Technology

Belgium Campus iTversity, established 1999, forms graduates who are immediately employable in a rapidly evolving economic environment. We promote innovation, forward-thinking and aspirations in our students to shape the future of society. The Senior Lecturer is responsible for the development and delivery of the relevant curriculum, guiding and coaching the student, the enhancement of BC iTversity's performance in innovation and knowledge valorisation by conducting activities with impact and profile, influencing leading edge practice.

Role

Comprehensive knowledge of the ever-evolving Business Information Technology field, with a deep knowledge and expertise in the development and architecture of computer (information) systems and quantitative modelling techniques for solving business problems and supporting decision making

- A deep understanding and knowledge in the domain of business informatics, including business intelligence, data management, data mining/knowledge discovery, information management, information systems, and business process management
- Making contributions to the practical application of computing to business problem-solving
- Dedication to the development of the subject, including a progressive and dynamic approach to teaching in higher education
- A strong student-centric approach to ways of working and commitment to excellence
- Supervision of NQF 8 projects and theses
- Excellent communication skills and style, able to communicate complex and conceptual ideas in a way that is creative, accessible, easy to understand and inspiring
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Ability to work independently and to be self-driven
- Networking and positive working relationship

Requirements

- PhD in relevant field or equivalent
- Candidates with Master's degree and registered for a PhD will be considered
- Completed pedagogical courses for higher education is desirable
- Excellent organisation and time management skills

Location

- Pretoria Campus
- Kempton Park Campus

Offer

- Salary R 400 000 – R 600 000
- Group insurance, medical, retirement annuity
- 13th cheque
- Opportunity to contribute to IP and bring to market new solutions

Apply

Interested candidates must send CV, cover letter and copy of certificates to vacancies@belgiumcampus.ac.za Ref SL05CBIT/2020.